

I strongly oppose any reclassification of ISPs to Title 1. Free and fair and open internet access has been a great boon to our society. Please do not erode the protections that are in place.